Celebrating the 50th Anniversary of the Apollo 14 Mission

Special Guest
Jack Roosa

Please join us in celebrating the 50th Anniversary of the Apollo 14 Mission.

Jack Roosa will share his personal stories about his late father, Stuart "Stu" Roosa, who served as the Command Module pilot during Apollo 14 Mission.

Biography:

Jack Roosa works for Raytheon as a Program Director for two major weapons systems. Prior to Raytheon, he has 20 years as a F-16 Fighter pilot in the USAF, as well as a Squadron Commander of a fighter unit, 80 Combat missions, and Awarded (among many others) the Meritorious Service Medal, Air Medal, Presidential Unit Citation Award with Valor, and the Combat Service Medal. He is a graduate of Fighter Weapons School, graduated from the Air Force Academy, and has a Master Degree

Mar 11 - Formal Training & State Team Breakouts
Mar 15-19 - State Team Meetings
Mar 23 - Culmination Event

This March the AIAA Congressional Visits Day (CVD) will be conducted virtually which provides many new opportunities for our members to participate where travel funding or time off were barriers.

CVD is important event and want to encourage you to sign up. Registration is free and CVD is virtual, but your participation is priceless. A training seminar is schedule for Feb 5th.

Your support of this upcoming event will be invaluable during a time when COVID-19 is weakening the resilient aerospace and defense (A&D) industry.

Enormous revenue losses, large-scale unemployment in aviation, erosion of military capabilities, and the breakdown of essential supply chains composed of small and mid-sized companies are creating a dire situation that cannot easily be reversed unless more is done by our decision makers in Washington, DC.
