Call for High School Grades 9-12 Students

Today, marked a great leap forward in Aerospace. It has been nearly 10 years since the US put humans into space. We are in a new era for US-based human spaceflight, shaking hands between the commercial industry and NASA.

AIAA mission is to shape the future of Aerospace. We invest in our future by getting our next generation interested in Aerospace.

We are looking for a few good High School students from grades 9 - 12 (both schools and home-
