

AIAA Code of Ethics

Members of the AIAA uphold the highest standards of ethical conduct and hereby agree to:

1. Hold paramount the safety, health, and welfare of the public in the performance of their duties;
2. Promote the lawful and ethical interests of AIAA and the aerospace profession;
3. Reject bribery, fraud, and corruption in all their forms;
4. Properly credit the contributions of others, accept and offer honest and constructive criticism of technical work; and acknowledge and correct errors;
5. Avoid harming others, their property, their reputations or their employment through false or malicious statements or through unlawful or otherwise wrongful acts;
6. Issue statements or present information in an objective and truthful manner, based on available data;
7. Avoid real and perceived conflicts of interest, and act as honest and fair agents in all professional interactions;
8. Undertake only those tasks for which we are qualified by training or experience, or for which we can reasonably become qualified with proper preparation, education, and training;
9. Maintain and improve our technical and professional competencies throughout our careers and provide opportunities for the professional development of those engineers under our supervision;
10. Treat fairly and respectfully all colleagues and co-workers, recognizing their unique contributions and capabilities.
