AIAA HRS Career & Professional Development Fall Semester Student Research Forum

Co-sponsored by the NASA Langley Aeronautics Research Directorate

The forum is a chance for students to present a brief overview of their aerospace related research to coworkers, peers, and mentors. Each student will have time at the podium.

All AIAA student members, NASA student interns, and those interested in becoming an AIAA student member are invited to submit a 100 word abstract about one of their aerospace related research projects (at the university or at NASA).

This is an internal event held at NASA Langley Research Center, public is not invited. Guest speaker, Cecil Mellanson, will share his career advice during a catered lunch with participating students.

*Non-center interns from local university partners are encouraged to attend. Must be US citizens or have legal permanent residence status with a current green card.*

Abstracts are due no later than Nov 12th at 4 pm, see below.

For all participants: please register to attend by Nov 9:
